Regarding : We are full up, fed up and we can't take it any more

Recently I 've read your interesting in which you mention that " But EU institutions insist that all EU citizens must have the same rights in Britain as British citizens".

I 'm writing you because I feel that a very important aspect of the recent discussion regarding immigration of Romanians is not covered at all. It seems that everyone is talking about the rights of Romanians in the European union, although no one mentions the rights of Europeans in Romania.

I wrote an article about this in a Dutch newspaper, which was named : Europeans are second rang citizens in Romania (Dutch: Europeanen zijn tweederangsburger In Roemenie; Nederlands Dagblad 3 juli 2013). I will quickly summarize the contents of the article: I will also refer to two other articles that I wrote before and after this article.

"I was glad when Romania joined the European Union in 2007, because I thought it would transform Romania in a rule of law state. I also thought that the entrance to the European Union would be the start of sustainable economical growth as well as the start of an irreversible democratization process. After six years, it is time to make up the balance.

First of all there is no decent public administration in Romania. Letters and complaints are simply left unanswered. Corruption is paramount, since it just takes an envelope to get things done. There is also still a ridiculous bureaucracy, for example some fiscal data still have to be delivered on floppy disks. There is no medical care like in the Netherlands. Although I speak the official language (Hungarian) of the village I live in, it is of minor use to me, since my citizen rights are simply denied.

Besides this Romanian civil servants contribution to the European union is that they don't speak a word of English, German or French. There is no village in the Netherlands where a Romanian wouldn't be helped in at least two of these languages.

State chauvinism still nurtures the feelings of fear in the older Hungarian speaking population of Transylvania, who grew up in Europe's most bizarre dictatorship. The reflexes of the Ceausescu dictatorship are still alive. Roma live under inhumane living conditions and are openly subject of discrimination. The Romanian society is openly racist and xenophobe.

Also Colonialism, which had been abandoned for over 50 years by the Dutch, is still alive in Romania. The Romanian government is giving away passports to the Romanian speaking inhabitants of the multilingual Moldavian republic. Prime minister Basescu openly spoke about a "Romania Mare". (Great Romania) The Romania state practices exterritorial positive discrimination towards people from another state, but uses negative discrimination towards its own inhabitants. (See my article; Free movement of Romanians might be a breach of Dutch Law in Nederlands Dagblad of 22 august 2013)

Till present day The Szekler people's right to self determination is denied.

As an entrepreneur I'm suffering constant discrimination from the Romanian state, in contrary to thousands of Romanians in the Netherlands I'm not able to use my basic rights, because court orders and irrevocable and valid legal decisions are simple not followed. (example Cluj-Napoca or Bonchida). The rule of law is completely missing due to the unique Romanian blend of corruption, bureaucracy, chauvinism and the instable political climate.

On the contrary a Romanian in the Netherlands can enjoy a good infrastructure, he enjoys the helpfulness of the Dutch police, he can profit from a transparent legal system. In case of emergency he will be picked up by an ambulance within 15 minutes. He can use his European civil rights anywhere he wants. There is no artificial language barrier for Romanians, which impede their civil rights.

A Romanian doesn't have to invest time and money for learning one of the two official languages of the Netherlands (Dutch or Frisian) due to fact that Dutch are hospital and are willing to speak English with any foreigner. Besides the holder of a Romanian passport can use social benefits, which don't exist in his own country.

There are three Dutch persons imprisoned in Romanian Jails, whereas in the Netherlands everyday a Romanian thief or murder is arrested, Romanian crime, (skimming, stealing robbing etc) is happening on a daily basis. In recent reports the Dutch Police talks about thousands crimes by Romanians. How many Romanian pocket thief's can be found in the Netherlands ? Dutch police mention a plague and thousands of committed crimes ! The ratio is over 1 : 1000 !

If we would be equal in Europe than Dutch citizens could use their rights to settle in Romania and profit from specific resources in Romania such as nature and cheap land for example. However there only a handful of Dutch people are living in Romania, a couple of hundred, whereas in the Netherlands already over 30.000 Romanians live. The ratio is again over 1:500 !

The European Commission itself reported that Romania is corrupt and questioned whether the transformation to a state of law has been done. (report of 18 july 2012)

There are almost no coloured people living in Romania, over 3 million people left the country and Roma, who are subject to state racism, are fleeing the country as well. (Hungarian speaking Roma suffer double discrimination) Over 3 million people voted against the Romanian state. All of them migrated to western Europe, how many Europeans moved to Romania ? The ratio is again over 1:100, but probably it could be as high as 1:500 !

Romania never dealt with it communist past of dictatorship, and the victims of this dictatorship, have never gotten a public excuse. the Hungarian population decreased by 200.000 persons since 1992 ! Germans are almost extinct and there is no Jew left although over 150.000 Jews lived in Romania in 1956 ! Romania fails to provide acceptable living conditions for it owns autonomous minorities. Romanian society should be outraged because of this instead of putting the country full with flags, which are almost the size of a skyscraper.

Romania is still underdeveloped and has not reached the wealth of western Europe, decent infrastructure is still missing, and it is not capable of using the available European resources for development, this is partly due to corruption and nepotism in Romania's Public administration.

Therefore I think that the denial to enter Schengen is justified, I Think that the free movement of labour should also be halted for at least two years; Well, I even think that Romania's EU membership should be a subject of discussion. (See my article in Nederlands Dagblad of 21-8-2012 Romania's entrance to the EU was to early)

I think that Romania will and should never be a full member of the European Union as long as it discriminates Europeans and treats them like second rang citizens.

I Live in Romania for over one year now, I don't feel that I'm a European Citizen enjoying my European citizens rights in a member state. What did the Romanian government do to make Europeans feel at home in Romania ?

1 LAWLESSNESS IN CLUJ-NAPOCA AND BONCHIDA

Language rights are simply not respected, although Hungarian is an official language in those public administrative units, where the population used to be over 20 % in 1992, most Hungarian Speaking Romanians are too afraid to use these rights.

Valid legal decisions and even undisputed legal orders regarding language rights are simply not followed. Even in a small town where over 80 % is Hungarian speaking language rights are simply and structurally denied; for more information please refer to <http://www.language.rights.eu>

Till present day the 99/2002 decision of the city council of Cluj-Napoca has simply been ignored. This decision, which was never withdrawn or declared void, orders placing three language signs at the entrance of Cluj-Napoca

According to this legal decision Hungarian Place signs should be place in the Town of Bonchida (Romanian: Bontida). This valid legal decision has never been withdrawn or declared void by any court in Romania and is still in effect under Romanian law. The Nationalistic major of Bonchida simply doesn't comply with this legal order. That 's the way things go in Romania, lawlessness. The romanian version can be found on our website.

CONSILIUL NAȚIONAL PENTRU COMBATerea DISCRIMINĂRII

2 PSYCHOLOGICAL TERROR AGAINST AUTONOMOUS LANGUAGE MINORITIES IN ROMANIA

Most Romanians have been socialized in one of Europe's darkest dictatorships (Ceausescu). They show reflexes, which are very hard to understand for people, who have been grown up in a free world. Hungarian speaking Romanians are still suffering psychological terror. Police and justice fail to take appropriate actions to protect their own people, although required by law. Pictures of Public Humiliation of Hungarians in Cluj-Napoca in 2013. On the first image spontaneous public outburst of a recent governmental led hate campaign against autonomous Hungarians has been documented. The man holds a Romanian flag and steps on a wreath with a Hungarian flag on it. The second picture reads "Hungarians out of the country. Romania for the Romanians."

Entrance of Cluj - Napoca till 2005; There is no country in the European Union, where an autonomous language minority -such as Frisians in the Netherlands, The French and German minority in Belgium, the Basque minority in Spain, the Welsh minority in England, the German minority in Italy, the Swedish minority in Finland or the Hungarian minority of Slovenia- has been discriminated as the Hungarian speaking people have been. The oppression and psychological terror is unprecedented within Europe. Although this sign, which was at the entrance of Cluj-Napoca for many years has been removed racism, xenophobia and state chauvinism are still vivid in today's Romanian society.

The sign reads : Romanian Constitution

Article 1 According to the constitution laws must obeyed

Art 13. The official Language in Romania is Romanian.

Art 16 Citizens are equal in front of the public authorities without privileges and discrimination

3 QUESTION OF A DUTCH SOCIAL GAME

Hungarians used to be prosecuted during the Ceausescu dictatorship. Today they still fear to use national symbols, such as a Hungarian flag. Autonomous Hungarians still don't enjoy those rights, which are enjoyed by Frisians in the Netherlands. Although they are autonomous people, they are STRUCTURALLY UNDERREPRESENTED in public administration.

For example Hargita county is for over 90 % Hungarians, however ethnic Hungarians make less than 50 % of the local Police. This kind of discrimination would be unthinkable in the Netherlands (Dutch and Frisian) or in Belgium. (Dutch, German and French).

Till present day the authorities are fighting a war on the use of national symbols, flags of the Szekler people are subject to fines and harassment by the authorities.

4 OPEN COLONIAL ASPIRATIONS.

Although its own population is discriminated and Europeans are second rang citizens there is still an open aspiration for making a large Romania. (Romania Mare) Romania is engaging in extraterritorial discrimination since its giving passport away to Romanian speaking Moldovians.

Unfortunately it is not only vandilists who have an open aspiration a "Great Romania". It is very odd that Romania is giving civil rights to people from the Moldavian republic who claim themselves to be Romanian speaking, whereas its own autonomous people are discriminated.

5 LANGUAGE AGGRESSION TOWARD EUROPEANS.

Where in Europe would you find such aggressive public signs ? In the Netherlands people are friendly towards European citizens and almost everyone speaks English, most people even speak German and some French.

These kind of signs can be found anywhere in Romania. How many Romanian municipalities can answer the phone and answer a simple question in English, German or French ? What about Dutch municipalities ? The text on the stickers says " In Romania the Romanian language is not facultative"

6 ROMANIAN SHOP IN ZUNDERT THE NETHERLANDS.

The Romanian Flag is freely used, the inscriptions and labels are in Romanian only. The staff is mostly only Romanian speaking. Is a European citizen free to use the same rights in Romania ? Romanians are using rights, which no Hungarian speaking Transylvanian dares to use. Although the Hungarian language is protected by National, Bilateral, European and International laws. (Source Eenvandaag / Facebook)

How can we be equal if European Citizens are not able to exercise those rights in Romania, which are exercised by Romanian Citizens in Europe ?

(Jews, Germans , Hungarians, Romanians, Gypsies, and some other small minorities). Many people have been erased through the ethnical cleansing in the Ceausescu Times, at present day, the remaining Hungarian population is subject to state led aggression.

The (Hungarian speaking) Jews have been ethically cleaned. In 1956 146.264 Jews lived in Romania, they have vanished from the statistics in 2011. in 1992 over 1,6 million Hungarians lived in Romania, in 2011 their number has decreased to, 1,2 million, which is a decrease of 400.000 people ! For more information please refer to <http://www.insse.ro/>

There are no Hungarian speaking Jews left in Des, the synagogue is empty.

8 LANGUAGE RIGHTS, EXIST ON PAPER ONLY.

On paper the autonomous people have language rights. Hungarian is even an official language in those administrative units where 20 % of the population is Hungarian speaking. In practice these rights are structurally denied, even in places where 80 % of the population is Hungarians speaking, language rights are denied, these rights exist mostly on paper only.

The Netherlands ratified the same treaties as Romania did regarding its autonomous language. (Strasbourg Treaty and the European Charter of regional languages amongst others) over 1.2 million Hungarian speaking Romanians are not allowed to exercise the same rights as the 300.000 Frisian do. more information can be found on <http://www.hungarian-human-rights.eu> and <http://www.language-rights.eu>

9. EXCESSIVE ROMANIAN CRIME IN THE NETHERLANDS.

37 Romanian pocket thieves, who operated as a gang, have been recently arrested during the gay parade in Amsterdam. During the coronation of the Dutch queen Willem-Alexander, Romanians were stealing wallets, during the singing of the Dutch Hymn.

Romanians gangs steal copper on a large scale, all ATM machines in the Netherlands have special protected mouths, because of skimming bank card by Romanian gangs only. Several official reports of the Dutch police mention a "Romanian plague". Romanian thief's destroyed Dutch cultural heritage, by burning paintings of Picasso amongst others.

Vier zakkenrollers via snelrecht de cel in Roemeense rovers op in oranje massa

door Saskia Belleman
AMSTERDAM, vrijdag
Met hun oranje hoeden, sjaals en zonnebrillen gingen ze vrijwel op in de oranje menigte, die op 30 april de inhuldiging van koning Willem-Alexander bekeek op een groot scherm op de Dam. Maar zo onopgemerkt als ze hoopten te zijn, waren de vier mannen niet voor de politiemensen die gespecialiseerd zijn in het opsporen van zakkenrollers. Terwijl de klanken van het Wilhelmus over het plein spoelden, zagen de agenten de hand van Vasilica V. (43) voorzichtig in de tas van een vrouw verdwijnen.

• Ionut P., Vasilica V., Sergei M. en Nicosor B. letten niet op de tv-schermen op de Dam, maar hadden wel oog voor de tassen van feestvierders.

Gisteren hoorde het Roemeense viertal tijdens een supersnelrechtzitting de Amsterdamse politierechter T. Gijsberts onvoorwaardelijke celstraffen tegen zich eisen van zes tot tien weken. Vasilica V., de blote voeten in blauwe, plastic hoestjes gestoken, hield het niet meer droog. „Als ik nou niet Roemeens was, hadden ze me dan ook aangehouden?” vroeg Ionut P. (25) verontwaardigd. Sergei M. (25) boog zwijgend het hoofd. Voor Nicosor B. (24) is het eerste toeristische bezoek aan Amsterdam waarschijnlijk ook het laatste geweest. „Ik kwam om me te vermaken, maar ik heb alleen problemen gehad.”

Nicosor B. en Ionut P. arriveerden op 26 april in de hoofdstad en belandden al meteen de volgende dag op het politiebureau wegens diefstal van een paar sokken en een pot gel.

Ze kwamen ervan af met een boete van 150 euro. „Ik kwam echt niet naar Amsterdam om te stelen. Ik heb een kind thuis”, bezwoer B. de rechter. Ionut P. had al eens eerder een Amsterdamse cel van binnen gezien.

Hij werd in januari 2012 veroordeeld tot zes weken wegens zakkenrollen en diefstal.

B. en P. leerden Sergei M. en Vasilica V. pas op de dag van de inhuldiging kennen, zeggen ze. Ze besloten gevierd uitgedost in oranje naar de Dam te gaan. Vasilica V. is de enige die toegeeft dat hij een poging deed om een vrouw te bestelen. Hij verborg zijn arm onder zijn oranje sjaal en grutte twintig seconden rond in de tas, waarin alleen pakjes frisdrank en suikerzakjes bleken te zitten.

De andere drie keurden het grote scherm nauwelijks een blik waardig. Ze scanden de omstanders en hielden hun blikken vooral op heuphoogte gericht, zag de politie.

De vrouw merkte niets. De politie moest haar erop attenderen dat haar tas openstond. „Schaamteloos en ernstig”, noemde officier van justitie M. Diependaal de bezigheden van de mannen. „Amsterdam heeft veel last van Roemeense zakkenrollers. Dit doet Amsterdam geen goed, en Roemenie ook niet.”

Politierechter Gijsberts nam het

de mannen vooral kwalijk dat ze op een feestdag mensen probeerden te bestelen, terwijl ze door hun uitdossing de indruk wekten dat ze volop deelden in de feestvreugde. Dat het viertal zijn sjaal probeerde te slaan tijdens het Wilhelmus, vond ze „kwalijs”. Sergei M., Vasilica V., Nicosor B. en Ionut P. blijven nog even in Nederland. Achter de tralies.

10 ROMANIAN IMMIGRANTS IN THE NETHERLANDS.

Almost 30.000 (their number is rapidly growing, maybe already over 50.000 !) Romanians are living in the Netherlands, how many Dutch people are living in Romania ? maybe 300. ? Most of them don't speak a word of Dutch or Frisian or a neutral international language such as English or French / German.

Over 3 Million Romanians left Romania and are enjoying the hospitality, the openness and civilization of Western-European Societies like Germany, France, Italy, Spain etc. How many West - Europeans are living in Romania; maybe a couple of thousand ? Why are Europeans not feeling themselves at home in Romania ?

11 ROMA PEOPLE NEAR CLUJ

Roma people live under inhumane living conditions, although there is money for building huge Churches in Cluj, and there is money for making flags the size of two football fields there is no money to give Roma a decent living or housing.

A Dutch civil organization is helping the Roma from Cluj, It seems that Romanian society doesn't feel the urge to improve the living circumstances of these people. The social circumstances under which these Roma people live are completely unacceptable. (Photo taken from <http://www.proromi.nl>) Hungarian speaking Roma suffer double discrimination.

12 RESULT OF SURVEY IN THE NETHERLANDS

According to the reliable and representative results of a survey of 1000 representative respondents by Maurice de Hond, a well known survey maker in the Netherlands, only 13 percent of Dutch people think that there is no positive correlation between crime and Romanians, 73 % of People think that there is a Positive correlation between crime and the arrival of Romanians. 13 ROMANIA'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE EUROPEAN UNION.

In Romania around almost every corner flags can be found, most even the size of a house or a car. There is no country in the European Union where flags can be found with extreme sizes and in such a frequency as in Romania. For more information see

<http://www.theguardian.com/world/2013/may/27/worlds-biggest-flag-romania-guinness>

14 OPEN ETHNIC PROSECUTION

A Szekler recently woman got a 1500 Ron (approximately 300 euro, which is over a month salary) fine for distributing bilingual product signs at the market of Marosvásárhely. (Romanian : Tirgu Mures) Till present day only monolingual Romanian signs can be found at the Cuza Voda Market. Although the Hungarians language is a co-official Language with the Hungarians it happens quite often that authorities simply punish the usage of the Hungarian language , they will always find an excuse, such as the local police did, who punished this woman for the "Illegal distribution of commercial leaflets". Older ethnic Hungarians who grew up in a world where they have been openly prosecuted and were subject to structural discrimination can be easily intimidated. This fine will probably be voided by a higher court, but intimidation still works in one of Europe's most undemocratic society.
